Option 3: Staying in Your Current Role

Use this if you decided not to make a career move at all right now.

Subject: Job Offer - [Job Title] - [Your Name]

Dear [Hiring Manager's Name],

Thank you so much for offering me the [Job Title] position. I am very grateful for your belief in my skills and for the opportunity to learn more about [Company Name].

After a great deal of consideration, I have decided that now is not the right time for me to leave my current company, and I have decided to stay in my current role. Consequently, I must decline your offer.

I truly enjoyed our conversations and hope we can stay in touch. I wish you and the team the absolute best.

Warm regards,

[Your Name]

Tips before you send:

- * Send it promptly: Once you are 100% sure of your decision, send the email. This allows the hiring manager to offer the job to the runner-up candidate without delay.
- * Customize the brackets: Make sure to fill in all the `[bracketed information]` before hitting send.
- * Keep it positive: Never use this email to complain about the salary, the interview process, or the company. Keep the bridge fully intact.
